THE POLIOY CASES.—Several parties were before the Mayor this morning charged with policy gambling. Those, Kelly and J. Mills against whom there was no evidence were discharged, but Edward Shook was fined fifty dollars and Wm. Payne, colored, on whose premises Shook was found with gambling devices, was fined one hundred dollars. Harry McLearen was charged with the same offense, but owing to there being nothing found on his premises of a criminal character and the inability of the only witness to identify McLearen as the party receiving money and giving out the paper slip he, too, was dismissed. It was developed in this case that a school boy was secured holiday for a brief period from the public schools and was supplied with money and sent to McLearen's place to play policy and that the boy had never done such a thing before, the experience being entirely new to him. The Mayor said that he commended the energy and efficiency of Officer Travers in working up these cases and that he knew the right thinking community applauded the officer's actions, but the means resorted to in the McLearen case were demoralizing to the youth of this city and it evidence could not be procured except through the introduction of school children to the pernicious mysteries of gambling establishments then it would be better to let gamblers escape.

After the trial in the Police Court today Rhoda Wilson, colored, was arrested by Officer Bettis on the charge of promoting policy. He was locked up for future examination.

ORGAN RECITAL.—The series of delightful entertainments given the State Conference, daughters of the American Revolution, by Mount Vernon Chapter, of this city, was brought to a successful close last night, with the organ recital at Christ Church.

The church was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and flowers, and a large and fashionable audience assembled to hear the music, every number of which was well rendered. The programme was as follows:

Organ voluntary, Mrs. C. G. Lennox; "Hark, Hark My Soul," Christ Church Choir; "Calvary" (tenor solo), Mr. Walter E. Birch; "Reverie" (violin, violin, organ), Miss Helen Whitteley; Mr. Walter Whitteley and Mrs. C. G. Lennox; "Open Thy Gates," solo, Miss Sara P. Taylor; "Nocturne" (violin), Miss Helen Whitteley; "Love Divine" (duet), Misses Greenwell and Mr. Horatio Rench; "The King of Love My Shepherd Is" (quartet), Messrs Greenwell and Sullivan and Messrs. Moore and Birch; "Serenade" (organ voluntary), Mrs. C. G. Lennox; "Come Thou Font" (soprano solo), Miss Mal K. Greenwell; "Jehovah" (bass solo), Mr. Charles W. Moore; "Corydonia" (violin), Miss Helen Whitteley; "Rock of Ages" (quartet), Messrs Greenwell and Sullivan, and Messrs. Moore and Birch; and "The National Hymn" (No. 196).

PERSONAL.—Miss Nannie Pollard has returned home from Alexandria, where she has been visiting for several weeks. Mr. Claude Fletcher, of Alexandria, visited his mother, Mrs. Sallie Fletcher.

St. Kirkpatrick and wife, formerly Miss Mary Bryant, of this city, will leave next week for Pensacola, Fla., Dr. Kirkpatrick, who is a surgeon in the United States army, having been transferred from Fort Meyer to the army post near that place.

Rev. T. H. Rice, formerly of this city but now of Atlanta, has been called to the Second Church of Louisville, and it is reported that he has accepted the call.

The Westminster League, of the Second Presbyterian Church, will on Thursday night next tender a reception to Mrs. F. J. Brooke, who has just joined her husband, Rev. Dr. Brooke, in this city.

The Manassas Journal in its recent account of the democratic meeting held there says: Mr. John M. Johnson of Alexandria made an able and exhaustive address and was frequently and heartily applauded.

Not a Surprise.

It will not be a surprise to any who are at all familiar with the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, to know that people everywhere take pleasure in relating their experiences in the use of this splendid medicine and in telling of the benefit they have received from it, of bad colds that have been cured, of threatened attacks of pneumonia that have averted and of the children that have been saved from attacks of croup and whooping cough. It is a grand, good medicine. For sale by all druggists.

This is the season when mothers are alarmed on account of croup. It is quickly cured by one Minute Cough Cure, which children like to take.

DEATH OF AN OLD LADY.—Mrs. Elizabeth A. Watkins, widow of David G. Watkins, died yesterday evening at the home of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. William E. Watkins, 2224 Duke street (West End), in the 87 year of her age. She was a daughter of the late Peter Treeler, of Fairfax county, and had been a constant reader of the Gazette for over 75 years. Mrs. Watkins was highly respected and much beloved in this city and the surrounding country, where she was well known, the home of her family having been at Strawberry Hill, Fairfax county. Three sons, Messrs. George, Winfield and Peter Watkins, and two daughters survive her. Mrs. Watkins was the mother of fifteen children.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.—The last democratic mass meeting of the campaign will be held at the Opera House on Monday night when Mayor Simpson, Mr. A. A. Lipcomb, Mr. Charles Bendheim and others will speak. A band of music will be in attendance and as heretofore the gallery will be reserved for the ladies.

SPORTS POSTPONED.—This was to have been Athletic Day at the Episcopal High School, near this city, but on account of the rain the sports scheduled for today were postponed until next Saturday.

HOW TO VOTE FOR PRESIDENT.—The official ballot which will be provided all voters will contain the names of all outsiders for President and Vice President, and beneath them will appear the names of their electors, or candidates for electors. To vote for Bryan and Stevenson one will simply have to run a pencil through the names of McKinley and Roosevelt, and through the names of all other candidates for these offices—ones own candidates excepted—leave standing the names of Bryan and Stevenson, and erase the names of their competitors. But here is the exact provision of the law: It shall be the duty of the electoral boards of the several counties and cities within the State, within twenty days preceding such election for President and Vice President, to cause to be printed on the official ballot provided for in this act the name of each candidate for President and Vice President, and the group under the names of the candidates for President and Vice President of each political party the names of the electors nominated by the political party of such candidates; and the qualified voters at said election shall designate their preference for any candidates for President and Vice President by scratching the names of the other candidates for President and Vice President, as they are provided in section 12 of this act, and the ballots shall be counted as they would be counted if the names of the electors had been scratched.
